My energy field is a sanctuary of peace, security, and pure light.	I block out external noise and anchor deeply into my centre.	I confidently say no to anything that drains my vital energy.
Negative or low-vibrational frequencies bounce off my protective shield.	I release all absorbed stress, tension, and foreign energy back to source.	I am safe, supported, and securely held by the earth beneath me.
My personal power belongs to me, and I guard it wisely.	I move through the world with absolute stability, calm, and focus.	My mind is clear, my heart is grounded, and my spirit is safe.
I am root-anchored, resilient, and unshakeable in my truth.	Every breath I take reinforces my boundaries and personal security.	I walk forward cloaked in universal protection, fully safe and secure.
